GTR & GTR+

Published quarterly and distributed to over 90 countries, GTR is the world's leading international trade finance magazine, providing essential news and analysis for companies and organisations involved in international trade.

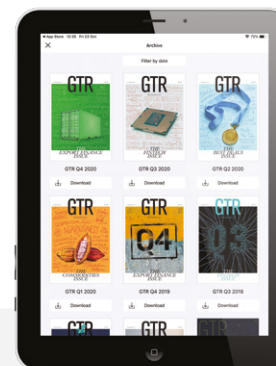

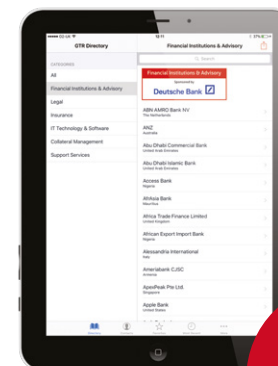

Complementing the magazine is GTR+, our range of special-edition publications that provide even more data and analysis on sectors and regions that we cover in the main magazine.

GTR Directory

The GTR Directory is the most comprehensive contact listing of service providers to the global trade, commodity, export and supply chain finance markets.

Now in its 19th edition and featuring over 2,000 contacts, the GTR Directory has a global circulation of 8,000 printed copies and is distributed at all our conferences, plus many external industry events.

Publications

GTR events

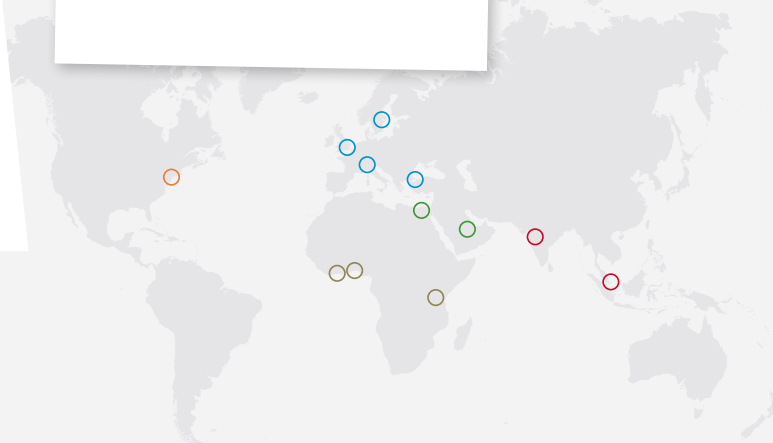

As the leading specialists in international trade, export, commodity and supply chain finance conferences, GTR holds around 20 events around the world each year in countries such as Nigeria, India, UAE, Singapore, Turkey, South Africa, Sweden, Kenya and many more.

Enjoying close working relationships with the industry's primary decision makers, GTR events provide an invaluable resource for anyone working in the world of trade. Featuring discussion and debate on the most up-to-date market trends via interviews, panel discussions, case studies and extensive audience participation, with networking forming an integral part of all GTR events.

With strong focus placed on exciting emerging markets, GTR is the company that goes to places others in the industry don't, understanding that networking, engagement and facilitation directly on the ground is the best way to get business done. We invest heavily in making sure our agendas are always timely and relevant to reflect changing market needs.

Don't miss our seasonal GTR Drinks networking gatherings for additional chances to connect with your trade finance community.
